Attention travelers comming from Angola

Important Information

There is an outbreak of Yellow Fever!

If you are concerned and you are exhibiting symptoms, such as a fever, report to the Quarantine Station upon entering Japan

If you are concerned that you may have been bitten by a mosquito on your travels, and you are exhibiting symptoms, please seek consultation at the Quarantine Station upon returning to Japan.

Yellow Fever is caused by a bite from a mosquito that is carrying the Yellow Fever Virus.

If you are concerned after your return to Japan, seek guidance at local health center

If you are concerned after entering Japan, please seek consultation at your local health center.

Additionally, if you are exhibiting symptoms, and you seek treatment at a clinic or hospital, it is essential that you report that you have travelled overseas.

There is an outbreak of Yellow Fever in Angola!

There have been numerous people infected with Yellow Fever in southern Africa, primarily Angola, beginning in December 2015.

Individuals who have not been vaccinated. have been bitten by a mosquito during their travels, and are exhibiting symptoms, such as a fever, should speak to a Quarantine Officer.

If you are concerned after your come to Japan, seek guidance at vour local health center.

Additionally, if you are exhibiting symptoms, and you seek treatment at a clinic or hospital, it is essential that you report that you have travelled overseas.

What is Yellow Fever?

Yellow Fever is transmitted through the bite of an infected mosquito, and the primary symptoms are fever, headache, chills, muscle pain, back pain, nausea, vomiting. Additionally, some patients may exhibit more severe symptoms, which, if not treated properly, may lead to death.

For more information...

Quarantine Station Website FORTH https://www.forth.go.jp/useful/yellowfever.html

Countries with an outbreak as of May 19, 2016