

At the red light, you may not go straight, turn left or turn right.

Use a seatbelt and a child seat properly.

There are many traffic rules and signs that are different from those in your country. When driving, you must maintain a valid international driver's license and follow the rules to stay safe.

Drive on the left side of the road.

Double-check Japanese traffic lights and street signs.

A vehicle that has not undergone the government-mandated inspection (Shaken) is not allowed to be driven on public roads. You must not drive a vehicle without compulsory automobile liability insurance.

If you get into a traffic accident

STEP.1

Aid the injured. Call 119 for ambulance.

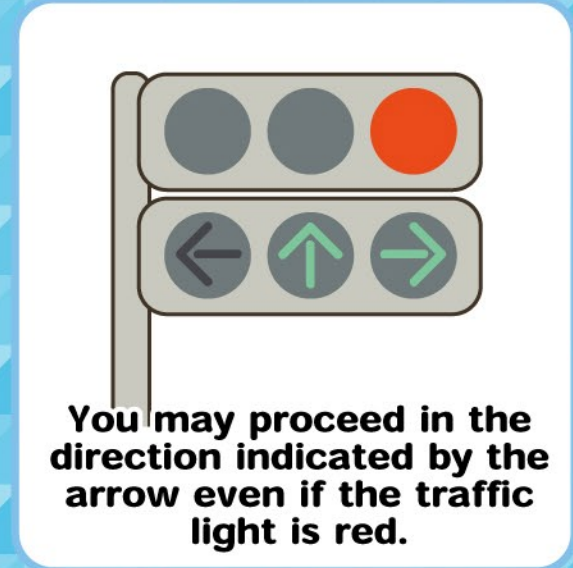

STEP.2

Call 110 even if you are not injured.

Leaving the scene will result in severe penalties.

You may proceed in the direction indicated by the arrow even if the traffic light is red.

Do not cross the yellow lane.

茨城県警察

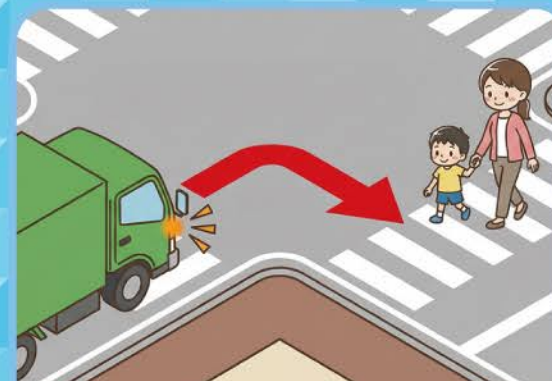

Where the sign is posted, you must come to a complete stop and check that your left and right are safe.

When passing near pedestrians, keep a safe distance from them and proceed at a significantly slow speed.

Stop before a pedestrian crossing and give way to pedestrians who are about to cross.

Do not interfere with pedestrians in the crossing.

When turning right, do not interfere with the oncoming vehicle or vehicle making a left turn at the intersection.

Driving under the influence of alcohol is a serious and dangerous crime.

Do not provide a vehicle to a person who has drunk alcohol.

Do not provide alcohol to a person who intends to drive.

Do not ride as a passenger in a vehicle driven by someone who has been drinking alcohol.

Turn on the lights early.

Switch to high beam lights when there are no vehicles in front of you and no vehicles in the incoming direction.

Driving without a license is a crime. Serious punishment shall be also imposed on a person who provides a vehicle to someone who doesn't have a license or rides a vehicle driven by someone who doesn't have a license.

Do not use a cellphone while driving.