

For technical intern trainee ~ on site of farms~

To prevent contagious diseases from entering the country, please carefully follow the rules listed below and notify other people around you.

Do not bring meat products from abroad

- You cannot bring meat products that do not have an inspection certificate attached to Japan.
- Please inform your family and friend from home to not send any meat products to Japan through the mail.
- Please be aware that bringing in items illegally will be subject to penalties of under 3 years or a fine of under 1 million yen.

Do not bring items associated with livestock animals from home country

- Please do not bring items such as work cloth, work boots and long boots to Japan.

Do not enter livestock farms

- Please do not enter livestock farms and its surrounding area 1 week prior to arriving in Japan.
- Please do not enter livestock farms and its surrounding area within 1 week after arriving in Japan.

To prevent diseases from entering farms

- Upon entering the farms, please disinfect your hands and shoes, as well as change clothes.
- Please do not bring friends or items into the farm or visit other farms without obtaining permissions from the farm owners.